

We are hiring!

Come and help us offer the chance to explore entrepreneurship to everyone as ...

Head Marketing & Communications

- You are end-to-end responsible for DELITELABS external communications.
- You work with our board and the other DELITELABS functions for campaigns
- You manage our volunteers and participants to assure day-to-day social media presence
- You manage and grow relationships with the press and other relevant networks
- You are a decisive and strategic thinker - not afraid to roll up your sleeves!
- You are open to drawing on senior advice from our network of communications experts
- Dutch native - or as close to - (written and spoken) is preferred
- You like inclusion and are happy to work with a group from diverse cultural backgrounds with different levels of experience
- You understand the power of the crowd and networked collaboration is in your DNA
- You are committed and look forward to growing DELITELABS into perhaps the world's first subsidy independent inclusive social incubator
- Ideally we would work together as ZZPers until the end of the year before we jointly decide to move forward together
- You should have at least 5 years of relevant experience – but be our guest to prove us wrong!
- You should be available at least 4 days per week on average

As part of the DELITELABS core team you can expect ...

- One of the most purpose and meaningful jobs in the Amsterdam region where you can unleash and grow your PROFESSIONAL TALENT, while creating DIRECT IMPACT through working with refugees and unemployed locals.
- A welcoming, warm and 100% inclusive atmosphere and lively entrepreneur community
- An inspiring working place in a theatre at the Royal Tropical Institute
- Every day to be different – there is always something happening here at DELITELABS
- An open, collaborative and knowledge sharing team of professionals – all with high-level experience of the corporate world - who have now discovered the light side of the Force!
- A startup environment – we are a startup ourselves and we love to work with aspiring entrepreneurs too
- To be part of an exciting journey to develop the best practices for migrant entrepreneurship in Europe (we are part of a relevant EU consortium on that topic)

We are looking forward to getting to know you! APPLY NOW
welcome@delitelabs.com

Amsterdam, 1-8-2017 // all information subject to change without notification